

SIMONE DE BEAUVOIR

INSTITUTE

presents

WOMEN'S WEEK ACTIVITIES

March 07 - 21, 1988

Exhibition on Women and Development presented by Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA)

Hall Building, Main Lobby

March 08, 1988
12:00 - 2:00

Lecture: The Making of Feminist Theory in Ireland: 1912 - 1916.

Speaker: Dana Hearne

Loyola Campus, Room HB-104

March 09, 1988

12:00 - 1:00

6:00 - 8:00

Talk: Women in Development: From Theory to Practice

Speaker: Evelyn Voigt*

*Born and raised in Africa, Ms. Evelyn Voigt has worked in Tanzania, Kenya and India. She has a particular interest in issues pertaining to gender and development support communication. Ms. Voigt joined CIDA as information officer five years ago. Her current portfolio, as project officer on the Tanzania desk, includes a Training Fund for Tanzanian Women, support to small scale farmers and commodity assistance. Ms. Voigt will be speaking on WID from the perspective of her current work at CIDA.

Hall Building, Main Lobby

Continuous presentation of video films in English and French.

Video films include:

Facing Tomorrow

A film about the largest gathering of women in Nairobi (English)

Elizabeth Badinter

Badinter's lecture on L'Un et L'Autre (French)

The Women's Studies Students Association will also have a full day colloquium on Uniting the Women's Community. Please call 848-7449 or 848-2370 for more information.